OUTLINES.

The huge steamship Lusitania at 6 o'clock last evening was reported by wireless to be 360 miles off New York, flying at an average speed of 23.86 knots per hour; her best day's run was 5 93 miles, a new world's record; the big steamer Lucania is 250 miles astern of the Lusitania——Charles E. Letton, chief clerk in the tax collector's office at New Orleans, who disappeared three days ago, leaving a shortage of $107,000, was captured yesterday while contemplating suicide by jumping into the Mississippi River, he confessed that he stole the money and spent the greater portion of it on a negro woman——In Atlanta yesterday Samuel C. Ferdy Earle says: "Every man has his affinity." Not in Wilmington if his wife finds it out.

Carrie Nation is in Pittsburg "to do what she can to reform the city." Here's where we ought to lose Carrie. She has a life-time job in Pittsburg.

An anti-flirting law has been passed in South Dakota. Such a law in North Carolina would have saved many a man from getting into the matrimonial net.

Considering the oppressive September weather in Wilmington, it makes queer reading to have the market report telling us that cold weather in the wheat country put up the price 2 cents per bushel yesterday.

The public sentiment that wants to throw things on Artist Earle, the affinity apostle, is pretty healthy, but in acting that way the people of Monroe, N. Y., are guilty of a more or less mild form of lynch law.

"Be sure! Remorse will overtake every man," ejaculated an Atlanta preacher. It must be admitted, however, that remorse has got a slow gait on her in her chase after the standpatters.

Mr. Sample S. Brown and Mrs. Helen G. Brown, of Greensboro, must be two popular people. They were divorced but remarried this week, and their popularity is indicated from the fact that the friends of each are rejoicing.

Says the Raleigh Evening Times: "If President Roosevelt will not become a candidate unless the entire country demands it, we take it that he will not become a candidate. Mr. Bryan and the New York Sun for instance will hardly 'demand it.'" Here goes another negative vote unless Roosevelt apologizes to Judge Parker for calling that gentleman a liar for telling the truth about corporation subscriptions to the Roosevelt campaign fund.

His Brother Dead.

Friends of Mr. S. W. Holden in this city will sympathize with him in the death of his brother, Mr. Sempronious Holden, which occurred Sunday afternoon at his home near Wilson, N. C., after an illness of only a few days with typhoid fever. Mr. Holden was born in Brunswick county in June, 1839, but lived in Wilmington until the outbreak of the war. He was a veteran of Fort Fisher and served throughout the war most gallantly, moving to Edgecombe county in 1866, where he married. He is survived by his wife and three children, who have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

DOINGS AT THE CAPITAL

Secretary Connor Leaves To Judge Educational Exhibts at Jamestown Exposition.

TWO CHARTERS ARE ISSUED

Seaboard Conductor Charged With Seduction—Dr. Moment Very Ill. Daughters of Confederacy Interested in Monument.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 12.—R. D. W. Connor, secretary of the North Carolina Historical Commission, has gone to the Jamestown Exposition to serve the next two weeks on the committee of awards to "judge" the educational exhibits. Other members of the committee are P. P. Claxton and President E. A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia.

An amendment to the charter of the Tennessee Coal Field and South Atlantic Trans-Continental Railway Company, of Ashville, and Waynesville was filed today in the office of the Secretary of State, changing the name to South Atlantic Trans-Continental Railroad Company. Captain S. A. Jones is president.

A charter is issued for the Taylor-Harvey Real Estate Company, of Kinston, capital $50,000, by J. F. Taylor, Charles F. Harvey and others.

Ernest W. Meacham, a well known Seaboard Air Line freight conductor here, has been placed under a bond of $250 on a warrant charging him with the seduction of Nora Bledsoe, who is a daughter of N. A. Bledsoe. The hearing is set for Wednesday, September 18th.

The next examinations throughout the State for applicants for State licenses for teaching in the public high schools will be held at each county seat under the supervision of the respective county superintendents October 11th and 12th. Directions in detail to those who expect to undertake this examination are being mailed from the office of the State Superintendent.

Dr. A. H. Moment, pastor of the Presbyterian church and one of the most able members of the Presbyterian ministry in this State, is very ill at his home here, suffering from typhoid fever. Relatives from a distance have been summoned.

The Raleigh Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, have decided to take an active hand in the raising of funds for the erection of a monument to the memory of Private Henry L. Wyatt, who was the first to yield up his life for the Southern cause in the Civil war. Some time in October a fete will be given to raise money for this cause.

Mrs. May Daun Watson, wife of Professor L. D. Watson, of the Baptist University for Women, died early this morning after an illness of ten days. She is survived by her husband and one child five years old. Also three brothers and two sisters all of Knoxville, Tenn. The funeral was held this afternoon from the residence by Rev. J. C. Masses, of Tabernacle Baptist Church.

In the office of Allen-Fleming Company vs. Southern Railway Company, from Warren county, the Supreme Court, Chief Justice Clark writing the opinion, holds that as against a foreign corporation the process of a justice of the peace may issue to another county and cite such corporation to trial, if the plaintiff resides in the county of the justice or the cause of action arose therein. This case was a suit for penalty for delayed shipment of goods from High Point.

Another improtant ruling is in the case of Sawyer vs. Roanoke Railway and Lumber Company, from Beaufort county. Justice Hoke writing the opinion, the court holds that there is encumbent on lumber roads the bounen and arbitrary duty of keeping a lookout along its track and that the company is responsible for injuries by reason of any negligence of employes to do this. In the case at issue J. L. Sawyer had been stunned ad his companion Billie Boyd killed by lightning on the track of the defendant road, Sawyer being run over by a train while he was lying in this condition, the trainmen having had no lookout to see that the track was clear as it backed upon the plantinff. He recovers damages.

Mr. Dempsey Wood, who is a Raleigh visitor from Kinston, says the cotton crop in his section has been seriously damaged by the drought, considerable cotton having been forced open prematurely. He regards the crop conditions in this section very superior to that around Kinston.

FAMILIAR FACES IN DOCK

Proverbial Recollection of Policemen Led to Undoing of Two in Police Court Yesterday—Charge of Conducting Disorderly Hall.

The recollection of faces and incidents, which faculty is reputed to be well developed in the ideal police officer, served the city in good stead at yesterday's session of the police court. A. F. Nelson, a white man said to be from Pender county, had been brought in by Officer M. A. Jones from Water and Market streets where he had been found drunk and down the morning before. When his face popped into view in the prisoners' dock yesterday, he was recognized as having been tried in the Superior Court about a year ago for commiting a nuisance at Wrightsville Beach and sentenced to four months on the roads, escaping from the convict force after having served two months of his term. He was taxed with the costs for being drunk and down and Superintendent Hocutt was notified that he was in the toils again if he desired his return to the roads.

John Brown, colored, serving something over 30 days around the City Hall during the administration in 1906, made his escape at the time and made himself scarce ever since. He was picked up for some trifling disorder night before last and when he appeared yesterday, he was also recognized as an "old friend," and was ordered this time to be sent out to the roads to complete his sentence instead of being given the merely nominal duties of working about the station.

The star defendant yesterday was William Weston, colored, arrested by Officer W. R. Appleberry for two separate and distinct assaults at Tenth and Market streets night before last. He first slapped the wife of another man down. The husband came to the police station and had a warrant sworn out for him. Meantime the officer had gone to look for Weston but he couldn't be found. Weston was around about and heard that the husband of the woman he slapped down and some of his friends were after him to do him summary violence. He telephoned to the police station for protection and in that way he was located, frightened to death. After his arrest he assaulted one of the prosecutors in the case first named and yesterday in court he was fined $10 and costs in each case in default of which he went to the roads.

A case of interest today will be that of Owen Smith, a well-to-do colored man, who is charged with maintaining a disorderly house on Wright, between Second and Third streets, where he has a dance hall and refreshment stand. The neighbors made complaint and he was arrested. Many of them will appear in court today to testify against him, while a number of witnesses will testify for him.

PUBLIC STENOGRAPHER.

Mr. Meares Harriss to Open Office for General Work, Etc.

An announcement of interest to the legal and other professions as well as to the general public at large is that Mr. Meares Harriss, an expert stenographer and typewriter, has opened an office for general work at No. 114 Princess street, where he is prepared to take and execute promptly and in the best of style all kinds of commercial, legal and technical work. Being well acquainted with legal phraseology and with general work, his office will fill a long felt want in the community, and it bids to be well patronized from the start. As the business develops, assistants will be employed and Mr. Harriss guarantees the best of service and prompt delivery. While his office hours will be from 8:30 o'clock to 6 in the evening, he is prepared to take orders and execute special work at any time. Mr. Harriss is a young business man of ability and will make a specialty of court work, for which there is a large demand in Wilmington. The office is in the building on south side of Princess between Front and Second, on the second floor.

CONVICT ESCAPED.

Touch of Appendicitis Gave Him Opportunity at the Hospital.

Will Smith, the young negro convict who was recently sent from the county stockade to the James Walker Memorial Hospital for an operation for appendicitis, made his escape from that institution night before last and has not since been heard of. He had completed three of a six-months sentence for some petty offense. The negro had a slight attack of appendicitis or feigned the symptoms in such a truly remarkable way that his transfer to the hospital was deemed imperative. He was placed in the charity ward for an operation the following morning. When the next gray dawn came, the negro had "skinned out" and failed to leave his address. Except for the moral effect of his escape the county authorities are not bewailing his absence as he was incapacitated half the time anway, and gave the road superintendent and his foremen much trouble with frequent complaints of feigned sickness. No reward has been offered for him and no blame attaches to anyone in connection with the escape.

TO KILL RABID DOGS

County Sanitary Board Passes An Order Relative to Disease in Country.

MET YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Sheriff is Made Executioner Upon Instruction of County Superintendent of Health—No Alarm, Though Infection General.

According to an order passed yesterday afternoon by the County Sanitary Board, which is composed of the Commissioners and two physicians, Sheriff Cowan is appointed Lord High Executioner of all dogs or other animals who are found in the county affected with rabies as may be officially determined by the County Superintendent of Health. This action was taken at a special meeting of the Board yesterday in attendance upon which were Chairman McEachern, Commissioners Divine and Vollers and Drs. R. H. Bellamy and W. D. MacMillan, the last named being County Superintendent of Health.

It will be recalled that at the regular monthly meeting of the Commissioners two weeks ago, the superintendent reported that rabies had been found in the county during August and that one cow had to be killed for the disease. People residing in the country desired some protection from any epidemic that might ensue and in the absence of any law covering the case, the Sanitary Board was called together to discuss the question. This meeting was short and to the point, Dr. Bellamy appearing as the champion of the dog, but by no means depreciating the value of taking all possible precautions against hydrophobia. The concensus of poinion in regard to the subject was included in the following resolution, which was unanimously passed, effective at once:

"Whereas, several cases of rabies have been reported in this county, be it

"Resolved, That all mad dogs or dogs bitten by mad dogs shall be killed by the sheriff of this county upon order of the Superintendent of Health, who shall issue said order after investigating and fully satisfying himself that such dogs are either mad or have been bitten by mad dogs."

The order is about the same as the law in effect in the city, and which is carried out to the letter, several cases of rabid dogs having been attended to during the month of August. The period of "dog days" being now about passed, it is not expected that Sheriff Cowan as executioner will have a great amount of work to do in the country. Contrary to popular supposition, Dr. Thos. B. Carroll, veterinarian of the city, says that rabies were quite prevalent in the city during the past month. The cases, however, were dealt with promptly by the police and no excitement was created over the prevalence of the disease among the canines of the city. The work of the cart in rounding up all stray dogs during the tax paying period contributes largely to keeping down the infection in Wilmington.

BLACK PATTI TROUBADOURS.

Famous Colored Singer at Academy of Music This Evening.

Of Black Patti's Troubadours, which will appear at the Academy of Music tonight, the Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday says:

"Greatly enjoyed last night at the Academy of Music was the performance given by the 'Black Patti' Troubadours. The audience was a fairly good sized one, and the entire gallery was filled with colored people.

"The programme throughout was attractive, and the singing was good, very good, while that of 'Black Patti' was artistic and sustained the reputation she has as a vocalist. 'Tutt' Whitney was excellent in his fun making. The various specialties were all well done and the costumes were bright and new. The closing number, operatic gems from 'The Bohemian Girl,' was well staged and presented the singing, this being greatly enjoyed. The colored 'Troubadours' give a performance that is really enjoyable.

"The appearance here of 'Black Patti' sets at rest the report made about a year ago that she had died. It was stated last night that it was her husband's death that had caused the report."

TO OPEN A STUDIO.

Mr. J. J. Adkins Will Instruct Limited Number of Pupils.

Mr. J. J. Adkins, who has had charge of the orchestra at Lumina since the first of September, will open a studio in the Odd Fellows' Building during the Winter, where a limited number of pupils will be given violin instruction. Mr. Adkins is an accomplished violinist and the music furnished by his orchestra at Lumina has been first class. His studio will be neatly fitted up and in him his pupils will find a capable and sympathetic instructor. For two seasons he has led the orchestra at the Hotel Tarrymoore, on Wrightsville Beach, and during this season he will be leader of the Academy of Music orchestra. Mr. Adkins' studio in the Odd Fellows' building promises to be well patronized by those who desire instruction on the "king of instruments."

RACING MATINEE TO-DAY

Turf Events at Old Fair Grounds Track This Afternoon—Trotting and Pacing Races in Two Classes—The Entries.

On the old Fair Grounds track, near the County Home, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock there will be a racing matinee under the auspices of the embryo driving assaciation of Wilmington and the entries are of such horses that turf devotees may expect something good in the two events scheduled for the matinee. The track is much faster than on the opening day of the races about two weeks ago and some fast horses are said to be on the way here and will be given a try-out on the course in connection with the regular events. The admission is free to all and wagonettes will connect with the car line at Fourth and Nixon streets.

The first of the scheduled events is in the 2:40 trotting class for which there are three entries, all of whom have been seen at practice on the course during the past week or ten days, their drivers developing some surprises. The horses for this race are "Jim," driven by Brown; "Wilkes Boy," driven by Harry Kidd, and "Sir Hanna," driven by H. T. F. Wrede. At least two of these horses took part in the scrub races on Labor Day and the owners go into the meet with a confidence that assures a pretty race.

The second event is a 2:30 pacing and trotting race in which "Rara Avis" will be driven by Mills and "Traveller," by McEachern. While "Traveller" has been the favorite of the track for a long time, honors are being sought persistently by others and the meet in this class will be watched with interest.

There is increasing interest in the turf in Wilmington and it is stated to be not out of the range of possibility that some really famous horses will be brought here for the Winter. As soon as the driving assaciation takes shape, there will be much interest in fine horses and the sport promises well. Facilities are all that are needed at present.

DRAINAGE OF THE STREETS.

Both the City and Consolidated Company are at Work.

Profiting by the experience with the excessive rains during August and the earlier days of the present month, both the city and Consolidated Company have begun the work of providing a better system of drainage for both Princess street and Front street, southwardly from Dock street. Superintendent Pickett yesterday put a large force of hands to work laying an eighteen-inch drain pipe from Fourth and Chestnut streets to Fourth and Princess, draining the surface water from Chestnut down to Fourth and into Jacob's Run back of the engine house at Fourth and Princess. Two sand traps will be put in at Fourth and Chestnut and the water coming down that street will be carried underground and caught with that from Princess street, above Fourth, and carried off to the river instead of allowing it to run down Princess and overflowing at Third and Princess and Second and Princess streets, as formerly. This will do much to relieve the situation and in addition to this the Consolidated Company will raise the brick pavement between its tracks on Princess street, so that the depression between the iron will not form a gutter to bring all the water down the street as heretofore.

Pursuant to agreement with the Mayor the same thing will be done on South Front street and certain drainage will be laid by the company so that there will be no further overflow at Front and Dock streets. Then in addition the company has a force of men at work building a roadway out Princess street as the double tracks out there had completely closed that street to traffic with vehicles. Much is expected to be accomplished within the next few days if the weather continues favorable.

CORNER-STONE LAYING

Impressive Service Sunday Afternoon at St. Paul's Church.

Pretty and impressive ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone of the handsome, newly enlarged and remodeled house of worship of St. Paul's Evangelical Luthern Church, will be observed Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock on the pretty lawn of the building at Sixth and Market streets. The regular service as prescribed by the Lutheran Church for such occasions will be observed with addresses by Rev. W. A. Snyder, the pastor, and Rev. C. R. W. Kegley, pastor of St. Matthews's English Lutheran Church. There will be singing by a chorus and by the Sunday School with other interesting exercises of an altogether pleasing nature. The public will be invited.

Have Returned Home.

Mr. C. W. Polvogt, who for three weeks has been in the Northern markets in the interest of the C. W. Polvogt Company, selecting the Fall stock of dress goods, silks, carpets, etc., has returned home, bringing with him Miss Felton and Miss Peacock, the millinery buyers, who have spent several weeks in Philadelphia and New York, selecting the stock for this popular Front street establishment.

FUNERAL OF MR. BEAR

Remains of Esteemed Young Wilmington Business Man Laid To Rest.

SERVICES FROM THE TEMPLE

Many Gathered to Pay Last Sad Mark of Respect and Esteem. Beautiful Tribute By the Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn.

In the presence of a large assemblage of grief-stricken relatives and sorrowing friends, not only from Wilmington, but from out of the city, impressive funeral services were conducted at half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Temple of Israel, Fourth and Market streets, over the remains of the late Isaac M. Bear, who passed away in a sanitarium near Baltimore, Md., on Tuesday morning. The church auditorium was completely filled with the hundreds of Wilmington people and others who came to pay a last sad mark of respect to the deceased young business man, who was so universally esteemed for his unswerving fidelity to his friends and his strict integrity and extreme geniality.

It was hard for those assembled to realize that he had gone, for it was but a few months since that he was among them and shedding sunshine and happiness in his daily walk and contact with his fellows. Included in the large assemblage who gathered to pay the last sad tribute of respect and esteem to him were members of the Wilmington Lodge of Elks and Jefferson Lodge, No. 61, Knights of Pythias, of both of which orders he was a valued and active member. Both these organizations assembled at their respective lodge rooms and attended the obsequies in a body. There were also present many members of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Bear having been for more than one term a member of the Executive Committee of the Exchange. From all these organizations came beautiful floral designs, the casket having been covered with pretty flowers sent by individuals and organizations to which he belonged. That from the Wilmington Lodge of Elks was a beautiful emblem in purple and white, with floral inscription significant of the brotherhood. The services were conducted by the Rev. S. Mendelsohn, D. D., rabbi of the congregation, and they were impressive to a degree that the congregation was deeply moved by the sentiments expressed. Dr. Mendelsohn's tribute to the life and character of Mr. Bear was a touching and eloquent one, being inspired by a long and intimate acquaintance with the deceased in his church and private life. The tribute paid by Dr. Mendelsohn was remarked upon by many after the service.

The music was by a special quartette composed of Mrs. J. D. Edwards, soprano; Mrs. Greene Fenley, alto; Mr. Greene Fenley, tenor; Mr. Herbert K. Holden, bass, and Mr. Alf H. Yopp, accompanist. The funeral hymns were beautifully rendered with impressive effect.

From the church the long funeral procession moved slowly to beautiful Oakdale Cemetery, where the remains were tenderly laid to rest. The pallbearers were Messrs. Martin Newmann, William Goodman, Ike Solomon, Marcus W. Jacobi, L. B. Rogers, W. O. Page, John D. Bellamy, Jr., and A. G. Danenbaum.

The remains of Mr. Bear, accompanied by the bereaved young wife, Mr. Victor Bear, a brother; Mr. I. J. Sternberger and friends of the family, reached the city yesterday morning from the North and were carried to the home of Mr. H. C. Bear, another brother, Sixth and Princess streets, where many friends called during the day to express their sympathy and to see for the last time the face, calm in peaceful repose, of their friend. Mr. and Mrs. David Elias, parents of Mrs. Bear, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Rosenthal, of Raleigh, were among those from out of the city who came to attend the obsequies.

DEATH OF DR. P. L. MURPHY.

We are not surprised to learn of the death of Patrick L. Murphy, although it is painful to contemplate that he is no more on earth. He died at Morganton, N. C., on Wednesday, after an illness lasting a year. He has not been well for more than a year. Eleven months ago he went North for an operation and after his return it was hoped that he would recover. A Morganton dispatch states that his disease baffled the skill of the best physicians in this and other State. He had grown steadily weaker, and for several days his death has been expected.

Dr. Murphy has resided in Morganton as superintendent of the hospital since 1882, and his death is deeply deplored there. The directors of the institution, several of his medical associates, other prominent citizens and relatives will attend the funeral, which will be held at 11 o'clock this morning at Morganton.

Dr. R. H. Lewis and Dr. A. W. Knox, of Raleigh, long intimate friends of Dr. Murphy, left Raleigh Wednesday night for Morganton to attend the funeral. They will be joined at Greensboro by Dr. George G. Thomas, of Wilmington, who will also go to the funeral.

Dr. Patrick Livingston Murphy was a native of Sampson county, N. C., and was born October 23, 1848. In yesterday's Charlotte Observer is a long, well prepared biographical sketch of the deceased and from it we take the following:

"He came of a strong, sturdy Scotch stock, his great grandfather being Patrick Murphy, of Arran, Scotland, and his grandmother on his father's side, Mary Bailey, a daughter of David Bailey, whose wife was Mary Williamson, whose father came to this country from Scotland. Dr. Murphy was a son of Parick Murphy and his wife, who was Eliza A. Faison, of Sampson county. His father was a man of fine sense, more than ordinary business ability, and great force of charactter. He was a large slave owner and accumulaed much property. The Faisons were upright and thirfty, and a proud and independent people.

"The childhood and boyhood days of Dr. Murphy were spent in Sampson county, near the town of Clinton, where he attended the village schools. When not in school he was on the farm, doing all sorts of work. He was not a robust child, but the labor that he did in the fields and around the sawmill made him strong. During the last two years of the Civil War he attended the famous Bingham School first at The Oaks and then at Mebane. The cadets of that institution, among them Dr. Murphy, served one day in the war; when General Stoneman, to ward the close of the war, made his raid from Greensboro to Salisbury they were ordered out to meet him. At the close of that great fraternal conflict Dr. Murphy and a number of his schoolmates walked from Mebane to their various homes, getting food and shelter wherever they could find it.

"After the war Dr. Murphy went to Hillsboro, where he entered the school of Colonel Tew, and completed his preparatory work. He went from there to Charlottesville, where he attended the University of Virginia, but did not graduate. In 1871 he graduated in medicine from the University of Maryland. Having secured his degree Dr. Murphy returned to North Carolina and began the practice of his profession in his native county. From Clinton he went to Wilmington, where he lived and practiced for several years.

"In October, 1878, Dr. Murphy was married to Miss Bettie Waddell Bumgardner, of Augusta county, Virginia, and shortly after was elected assistant physician to the Western State Hospital of Virginia, at Staunton, where he remained until 1882. It was during his short service at this institution that he began to make his reputation as an alienist and physician."

Dr. Murphy builded on that reputation after he returned to his native State to take charge of the State Hospital at Morganton. He has been at that post 24 years, and he has made it one of the best institutions of the kind and made a name for himself throughout the United States. He was a man of rare professional ability and was equally as capable in executive capacity. It is worth while to say that he was regarded in the medical profession as a learned physician and eminent alienist. He was a big hearted, genial, diplomatic man, and had the faculty of tying men to him with hooks of steel, as it were. He stood for whatsover was good in life, illustrated it in his work and life, and his death indeed rounds out a career that was a credit to him, an honor to his State, and a pride to his family. He leaves a wife and four children, and a number of relatives in Eastern North Carolina.

A biographer truly says this of Dr. Murphy:

"In the death of Dr. Murphy the State has lost one of its most valuable citizens, one of its most likeable men. At the age of 58, when he should have been in his prime, he died an old man, worn out. But he will never be forgotten, for the State Hospital at Morganton will stand as long as North Carolina lives. Within the short space of 24 years Dr. Murphy converted a barren mountainside into a magnificent institution, famed far and near for the originality, the force and the character of its superintendent."

MR. MEARES ON RATE QUESTION.

In the Charlotte Observer of yesterday Iredell Meares, Esq., a prominent member of the Wilmington bar, contributes a 17-column article on the rate question which has for several months agitated North Carolina. Mr. Meares presents the subject in a consecutive way as to facts and argument, and whether one may agree with all his argument or not a dissenter would have to go up against a strong presentation of the matter. The Observer contains this editorial concerning, Mr. Meares' article:

"In this issue of The Observer Iredell Meares, Esq., of the Wilmington bar, presents an able and elaborate argument upon the North Carolina railroad rate litigation and the agitation growing out of it. It is illuminating in its character and is so set forth that the points made can be grasped and comprehended by an intelligent lay mind. Apart from the merit of the legal positions taken, Mr. Meares does the public a service by defining at the outset the difference in the functions of the legislative, executive and judicial departments of the government; the relations of the Federal and State governments to each other and the scope of the constitutions of each. The proposition that in the formation of the Federal Union the States delegated to the general government certain powers and such as they did not delegate were reserved to themselves or the people, is axiomatic, but it is not so well understood that as between the two the Federal constitution is paramount to the constitutions of the States and that where in they conflict the latter must yield. So much of the discussion as relates to these fundamental matters may seem to the student of government unnecessary; but not so; to him they are, but to many even intelligent minds these primary facts are hidden.

"The pith of the argument is the relation of the Federal and State courts; what are and what are not States' rights, and of what class of cases Federal courts may properly take jurisdiction. More clearly than any one else has done in any published article, Mr. Meares sets out that in instituting suit to prohibit the enforcement of the two and a quarter cent passenger rate both the Federal and State courts were open to the railroads, and that the action being an equitable proceeding the railroads properly, for reasons stated, chose the former forum; that Judge Pritchard entertained the application for injunction, not only properly, as a matter within his jurisdiction, but that it was his duty to have done so; that he could not have surrendered jurisdiction, and that every intelligent lawyer knows this.

"There is no attempt to present here a summary of this very striking paper. The only purpose is to say that it impresses The Observer as a very able presentation of an argument, and has been found by it instructive and of absorbing interest. Without other comment than this upon the legal phases of the article, it is desired to add that The Observer is in thorough sympathy with so much of it as deprecates the hysteria which has grown out of the litigation, and so much of it as suggests to the people that this is an orderly court proceeding, not improperly but properly constituted in the United States Court, and a case for the exercise of sober judgment and not for theatricals or to be settled in passion or under the influence of clamor. It is long, but it is enlightening and worth while."

CURRENT COMMENT

—Artist Earle is not the first man to get into trouble by too close adherence to his affinity.—Augusta Chronicle.

—If the towns of North Carolina have made such great progress with unfavorable freight rates, what splendid cities this State would have had with the same advantages as Virginia.—Raleigh Times.

—Southern Railway "experts" say North Carolina now has as low rates as any Southern State except Virginia. It must give us as low rates as Virginia, and any other State., North or South, similarly situated.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—The Washington Herald says that of "three parties charge with peonage in Florida, one came from Maine, one from Massachusetts, and one from Canada." The Herald adds that "naturally the Sunny South cannot repress a smile."—Raleigh News and Observer.

—The usual rate of railroad fare to the State Fair and return has been "fare and a third," or four cents a mile. When Atlanta approaches the railroads for a rate for the State Fair in October she may be informed that she is already enjoying fair rates every day. And then there will be another big "holler."—Savannah News.

—The great stone dam thrown across the Yadkin river near Salisbury, N. C., is an engineering feat of highest importance. The dam is 31 feet high and 917 feet long. The minimum flow of water will give 46,000 horse power, which is said to be second only to Niagara Falls in source of available electrical energy. The power is to be distributed by wire to mills within a radius of 40 to 50 miles. In the cotton belt there are numerous water powers, not so large as this but quite large and valuable, that will be developed and set to turning spindles and driving looms within the course of a few years. The development of electrical transmission means much for mill building in the South.—Savannah News.

—What is the cause of these abnormally high prices? We firmly believe that the protective tariff is one of the underlying causes, and that it is a menace to our financial and industrial system. We are not surprised, therefore, that many of the manufacturers themselves are now advocating tariff revision. All artificial stimulants run their course by and by; and then there is a sudden collapse. But whatever the cause, some of the wisest financiars in this country believe, so we are reliably informed, that nothing but a conservative recession in business can save the country from serious trouble. Fortunately, such a recession has already set in, and if it does not go too far, it will be a blessing instead of a misfortune.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MOTHERHOOD

MRS. JAMES CHESTER

The first requisite of a good mother is good health, and the experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as a woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, more successfully than by any other medicine because it gives tone and strength to the entire feminine organism, curing displacements, ulceration and inflammation, and the result is less suffering and more children healthy at birth. For more than thirty years has been the standby of American mothers in preparing for childbirth. Note what Mrs James Chester, of 427 W. 35th St., New York says in this letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every expectant mother knew about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A neighbor who had learned of its great value at this trying period of a woman's life urged me to try it and I did so, and I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a successful remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It has cured almost every form of Female Complaints, Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation, Ulcerations and Organic Diseases of Women and is invaluable in preparing for Childbirth and during the Change of Life

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass Her advice is free.

In Buying Whiskey Use Some Judgment

If there is one article in the world that should be pure, it is whiskey, whether taken in case of illness or otherwise. More injury can be done the stomach by using unreliable whiskey than anything we know of, and on the other hand, reliable whiskey taken in moderation is extremely beneficial. Whiskey is used in every sanitarium and hospital, and nearly every home for medicinal purposes. This is one demonstration of its great value.

The same judgment should be exercised in purchasing whiskey as used in buying other necessities to be taken into the stomach. You must realize that only injury can come from impure whiskey.

IN BUYING OF US YOU USE JUDGMENT.

DR. HORNER'S WIFE WAS ESTRANGED

Prominent Baltimore, North Carolina and Georgia Families Concerned in Regretable Affair—Dr. Horner Sues Wife's Parents.

(Baltimore Sun.)

Dr. Isaac E. Emerson, of Bromo Seltzer fame, and his wife, Mrs. Emelie A. Emerson, were sued jointly for $100,000 damages in the City Court yesterday by their son-in-law, Dr. T. Mitchell Horner, who charges them with alienating from him the affections of his wife, Mrs. Daisy Emerson Horner. It is said that Dr. Horner has not seen his wife and has been unable to ascertain her whereabouts since May 14 last, when she received a telephone message calling her to Baltimore from Atlanta, Ga., where she lived with her husband. Mrs. Horner told her husband, it is also said, that the message came from Dr. and Mrs. Emerson.

The declaration is short. On May 14 last, and on other occasions prior to and subsequent to that time, it states. Dr. and Mrs. Emerson "did cause and procure and wickedly persuade and encourage the estrangement of the affections of Mrs. Horner from her husband, and did deprive him thereby of the society, fellowship and assistance of his wife.

Dr. Horner was the agent of the Bromo Seltzer Company at Atlanta. About the time his wife left him in response to the supposed communication from her parents, the agency was closed, it is said. Dr. Horner and Miss Emerson were married in Baltimore Wednesday, April 22, 1896, the ceremony taking place at St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal church. Dr. Horner is a son of Dr. Joshua Horner, at that time president of the American National Bank, which has since gone out of existence. At the time om his marriage Dr. Horner had charge of the New York office of the Bromo Seltzer Company. Subsequently he was given charge of the agency of the company at Atlanta. Doctor and Mrs. Horner lived happily together, it is said, until the summer of 1906, when she went abroad with Dr. Emerson. Before the return of Mrs. Horner from Europe in October, 1906, she cabled to her husband to meet her in New York. He did so, and they continued to live together until last May, when, as alleged, she was persuaded to leave him.

Mrs. Horner was with her mother October 22, 1906, when Mrs. Emerson's automobile was held up in Druid Hill Park for running faster than the law allows, and Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Horner and Chaffeur were taken to the Northern police station. Mrs. Emerson made charges against Police Captain Ward and Police Sergeant Joseph Smith because of the arrest. She failed to appear at the hearing and the charges were dismissed. Then the policemen sued her, and, after a trial that attracted much attention, they got a verdict.

Dr. Emerson resigned a few years ago from the Maryland Naval Brigade, after he had devoted a great deal of time and money to developing that organization.

It was announced last January that the Emersons had decided to abandon Baltimore as their home and become residents of South Carolina. Dr. Emerson had bought Arcadia-on-the-Waccamaw, near Georgetown, S. C., and it was said that would be his permanent home.

Dr. Emerson is at Old Point Comfort on a yacht cruise, and Mrs. Emerson, who has been at home on account of a badly sprained limb, denied the allegations in the suit for damages. She said she received unofficial information about the suit having been filed in the City Court yesterday afternoon, but had not been served with official notice.

"It was a great surprise to me and I say plainly that it is an attempt to extort money from Dr. Emerson and me."

"You had no intimation that Mr. Horner contemplated filing the suit then?"

"Alienation of his wife's affections," sniffed Mrs. Emerson, "Why he knows well enough that we made no effort to estrange his wife from him. We have always been fond of Mitchell, for if we had not, we would not have built a fine home for him and Daisy in Atlanta at a cost of $40,000.

Mitchell knows very well that his wife is staying with Mrs. Smith Hollins McKim at Irvington-on-the-Hudson,, and so far as his having sent many letters to her at this address which were unanswered, the rumor is unfounded, as he sent only two letters to her, both of which were delivered to her. When Daisy left him in Atlanta about May 13, he knew why she took the step. Daisy called me up over the long distance phone at that time, and told me that it would be impossible for her to live with him any longer for reasons that I do not care to state. After she had told me of the circumstances that led her to leave him, I asked her if Mitchell were at the house. She said yes, and I said: 'Let me speak to him.' When he came to the phone I said: 'If what I hear is true, Mitchell, you see that Daisy cannot live with you any longer.' He replied, saying: 'Yes, I have been a fool and cannot blame her.'

"Then, my daughter went on a European trip, and afterward went to the home of my other daughter, Mrs. McKim, where she is in a nervous condition.

"Mr. Cook, one of the officials of the company, went to Atlanta several months ago on a business trip and found the office of the Emerson Drug Company closed. For four days he was unable to find Mitchell, and when he made his report Mitchell was dismissed because of his neglect of the branch office. The allegation that the office was closed and he was summarily dismissed, is, like the other charges, entirely unfounded.

"SKIDDOO MOSQUITOO."

New Preparation With Significant Name by Wilmington Druggist.

"Skiddoo Mosquitoo" is the name of a new and decidedly effective preparation being put up by Mr. J. Frank Jarman, the Princess street druggist, to free suffering humanity from the annoyance of the little insect suggested by the name of the medicine. It is strongly recommended by those who have used it as being not objectionable for its odor except to mosquitoes, harmless to the skin and effective. It is put up in 25 cent bottles and is being sold in quantities at the store of the inventor of the preparation. It's "23" for all the pestiferous little musical artists which have been playing "rag-time" in Wilmington ever since the heavy rains of August and September.

Telephone Line is Completed.

The line of the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Telephone Company has just been completed and the first conversation over the circuit has been had with this city. The line is one of the best that could be installed and central stations are maintained at Shallotte, Supply, Calabash, Little River and Southport, connecting at the latter point with the Brunswick Telephone Company, there being over seventy miles or wire all told. Messrs. Stone & Co., of this city, were the promoters of the new line and backed it financially. It puts in touch with Wilmington a section of country from which the city draws much of its trade and will do much toward facilitating the commercial relations between Wilmington and the communities touched.

Abe Attell, of Chicago, was given the decision over Jimmy Walsh, of Chelsea, Mass., at the end of a ten round bout in Indianapolis last night.

—Fred Bennett, a colored man sent over from the police station, was adjudged insane by a commission of lunacy yesterday at the Court House. The negro was raving mad when he first came in, but yesterday he was much more quiet. The commission recommended that he be sent to the hospital for the colored insane at Goldsboro.

—The Cape Fear Academy, Professor Washington Catlett principal, will open its 35th annual session next Monday in the hall on the second floor of the Odd Fellows' building, opposite the City Hall. The outlook is very bright for a successful year's work, the Academy being one of Wilmington's oldest and most thorough educational institutions.

—The season in the Southside Baseball League closed with the games last Saturday, owing to the inability of members of the teams to get away from business during the Fall months. The Cotton Mills team closed ahead in the series by two games. Some very good exhibitions were given during the Summer and the league has very bright prospects for next season.

MR. ELI H. DAVIS DEAD.

Highly Esteemed Citizen of This County Passed Away Yesterday.

Friends in this city yesterday learned with great regret and sorrow of the death of Mr. Eli H. Davis, for forty years a resident of this city, but for the past several years living at his country home, "Pineview," about three miles from Wilmington on the Carolina Beach road. Mr. Davis passed away yesterday morning at 10:45 o'clock, after an illness of but a day or two. Until Wednesday he was in his usual health, but during the day he became violently ill and in spite of the best attention, he passed away yesterday at the hour named.

Mr. Davis was a son of the late Rev. Aaron Davis and was born in Onslow county sixty-seven years ago. He moved to Wilmington when quite a young man, and was connected for his long residence here with Hall & Pearsall and the Standard Oil Company. The last year of his life he had spent quietly at his country home. He was a man of high character and rare devotion to his family and friends. His death will be learned of with great sorrow and the bereaved ones will have the sympathy of many friends. Those surviving are his wife and four children, all grown, Mr. James A. Davis, Miss Minnie Davis and Mrs. J. E. Ennett, of Wilmington; Mrs. C. E. Schachner, of Monroe, N. C., and Mr. E. C. Davis, of Tampa, Fla. He is also survived by two sisters and a half-brother. Until all the absent members of the family are heard from, the funeral announcement will not be made.

TWO BIG COTTON SHIPS

Steamers Anglo-Saxon and Arroyo Arrived Yesterday for Cargoes.

The big British tramp steamers Anglo-Saxon, of 2,671 tons burthen, and the Arroyo, registering 2,307 tons, each with a capacity of something like 15,000 bales, arrived yesterday from Baltimore and Para, Brazil, respectively, and will receive cargoes of cotton from Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. A third steamer is expected from Newport News, Va., today or tomorrow. The two arrivals yesterday were docked at the Champion Compress and are already receiving new crop cotton for the other side, the big presses having started up yesterday morning.

Cotton receipts at the port yesterday were 1,563 bales against only 22 bales same day last year. The local market has declined to 12 3-4 cents for middling in sympathy with New York spot quotations, which were on a basis of 12.90 for middling yesterday. It is hardly expected that the high standard of prices will be maintained much longer, but the opinion among well informed cotton men here is that the price will not go below 10 cents at any time this season. Of the receipts yesterday 1,358 bales came from South Carolina points and adjacent North Carolina points, 77 bales came from the Carolina Central territory and 28 bales from the Wilmington and Weldon section. The steamer Lyon brought one bale from up the river.

HANDLING MONEY.

It Is No Temptation to the Seasoned Bank Teller.

"Money? Don't the sight of so much of it make me hungry for it? Not at all. To tell the truth, it is like so much mud to me."

Thus spoke a teller in a Denver bank. He was talking to a young man outside the cage. On the counter were heaped piles of gold and silver coin and bunches of paper money.

"I'm sure I couldn't stand the constant temptation to appropriate it for my own use," said the man outside.

"Yes, you could," replied the teller. "You could easily after being in here a week. For the first few days the money would look pretty good to you, and you'd have to use your will power to keep away from it, but after a week or so it doesn't seem like money. It seems like merely an article you deal in, just as potatoes seem to the grocer. There isn't a sixty dollar a month bank clerk in a thousand who thinks of stealing the money he handles unless he is in debt and is being crowded for funds. To the bank employee who has his debts paid and has enough to keep from thinking of an urgent need for cash money has no value. Handling money is just like eating to a teller. As long as he has enough food in his stomach he has no desire for more and even a big, fine, juicy steak has no temptation for him. But let him get good and hungry, and he'll covet that steak. The only way for a man who handles money in a bank to be free from the temptation to appropriate it is to keep out of debt and not develop any urgent and expensive ambitions."—Denver Post.

BUNDLE HANDKERCHIEFS.

Introduced Into New England by the Salem Sea Captains.

Housewives of today would not know what was meant by the bundle handkerchief, yet 100 years ago the woman who did not have a pile of them neatly folded and ironed and laid away in smooth piles in a drawer of one of the capacious closets which were then built into houses was considered a poor housekeeper. The bundle handkerchief was first introduced by the Salem sea captains. It was brought from abroad with choice things, such as sandalwood fans, guava jelly and amber beads.

Those imported were the white india silk and were used to tie around the "best cap" box when ladies went out to spend the afternoon. Those of home make were of squares of calico or muslin and used for everyday bundles. When ladies went visiting to other towns their piles of dainty, handmade underware were wrapped in fine lawn or linen handkerchiefs sweet with lavender and orris. A new gown always came home from the dressmaker's carefully pinned in a thin, worn and much used madras handkerchief.

No Salem infant was considered to have been properly introduced to society till it had dangled in a bundle handkerchief from a pair of steelyard scales.

When the servants went to the bakery they carried a couple of coarse blue checked bundle handkerchiefs, and in one was wrapped the pot of beans, and in the other was wrapped the brown bread.

Louisa Alcott's Education.

In 1846 Mrs. Abbott, with some family property, bought the house known now as the Wayside, since Hawthorne bought and renamed it in 1852, says F. B. Sanborn in the Critic. The Alcotts had called it Hillside and had passed pleasant childish years there. Louisa's story telling gift was developed here, and in the barn her earliest plays were acted by herself and her sisters and schoolmates. In her earlier years at Concord she had been for a short time a pupil of Henry Thoreau and still earlier of her father's Boston school. Her other education came irregularly from her parents, from a temporary governess and sometimes from town schools, but she always missed the careful education that most of the Concord girls had, either in public or in private schools.

Hissing "Carmen."

One of the most popular operas of the present day, "Carmen," underwent an unfortunate experience, but achieved success too late, alas, to console the disappointed composer, whose death was accelerated, it is said, by the ill reception accorded to his chef d'oeuvre. "Carmen" was, in fact, actually hissed off the stage on its first performance in Paris in 1875, and poor Bizet died shortly after, unable to foresee the great success in store for his latest and best work, whose stirring music so admirably fits the thrilling Spanish libretto it illustrates.—Cornhill Magazine.

The Same Idea.

It is recorded that Napoleon, when asked to summarize the art of war, answered briefly, "The art of war consists in being strongest at a given point at a given time." This answer was terse and true, but that born but untaught fighter, General Forrest, expressed the same idea, yet more briefly and forcefully. When the grim old Confederate was asked how to win in battle he replied, "Get thar fust with the mostest men."

Where They Met.

Angry Wife (after a quarrel)—Seems to me we've been married about a hundred years. I can't even remember when or where we first met. Husband (emphatically)—I can. It was at a dinner party, and there were thirteen at table.—London Tit-Bits.

Nothing to Hope For.

Cholly—I am poor, but very ambitious. Will you marry me? Mabel—Yes, I'll marry you. I'm not at all ambitious myself.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Superior Court Monday Week.

Three weeks of New Hanover Superior Court will convene next Monday, Judge J. Crawford Biggs presiding. The bar of the city will meet today week for the purpose of arranging the calendar of civil suits beginning the second week of the double term. It is stated that there are a large number of cases for trial, but as usual, it is expected that the time will be frittered away with three or four cases. In this connection, there is a growing demand for the employment of a court stenographer, which will greatly facilitate matters. This is one of the pressing needs of the county, as everyone will testify who has had the least experience in the court room while a civil term is in progress.

Held for Housebreaking.

Duncan Brown, the negro youth charged with entering the residence of Mrs. G. D. Parsley last Saturday night and stealing therefrom a pair of trousers, a diamond pin and other articles belonging to Mr. J. O. Carr, was given trial before Justice Bornemann yesterday and was bound over to the higher court under bond of $100 for housebreaking. The boy was represented through his mother, by Brooke G. Empie, Esq., who contended strongly there was not a particle of evidence to connect the boy with the burglary and that a complete alibi had been established, but Justice Bornemann thought there was enough evidence for probable cause and he passed the case up to the higher court to determine.

OVERPRODUCTION OF COPPER

Amalgamated Mines at Buttte, Mont., To Shut Down.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 12.—A crisis in the copper situation, due to a deadlock between the producer and the consumer, has resulted in a tremendous overproduction of the metal, and the Amalgamated Copper Company, the largest producer of copper in this country, will soon shut down its mines in and about Butte, Mont. News of the intended suspension of operations there was made known today by an interest closely identified with the company. Amalgamated stock fell over four points in the stock exchange when the news became known and the shares of the company sold down to $60.25 which is 61 points under the high record price of the year. The Amalgamated Company has had difficulty in obtaining adequte supplies of fuel at Butte and this is said to be a contributing case for the shut down.

The Amalgamated Copper Company, along with other copper companies, has been piling up a large surplus of copper for several months and it is authoritatively stated that there is a surplus of 250,000,000 pounds of refined copper in the United tSates.

Henry H. Rogers, president of the Amalgamated Copper Company, is now ill at his Summer home in Fair Haven, Mass. J. W. Beck counsel for Mr. Rogers announced in court in Boston today that Mr. Rogers had been ill since July and that he would not be able to appear in court for at least three months.

RUMORE AFFECT STOCKS

Flurry on Philadelphia Exchanges. Prices Topple.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—During the afternoon the market for traction stocks on the Philadelphia exchanges was dull and steady, the close being above the lowest. Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company stock closed at 16 1-4, compared with a low record of 15 1-2, a net loss for the day of 3 3-4 points. Union Traction closed at 45 1-4, the low for the day being 44, and the net loss 6 3-4. Both these stocks have been under pressure because of rumors affecting the stabilities of the companies. Officials and directors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company denied positively that the company is in financial difficulty or that a receivership is remotely probable. Figures given out show ample funds on hand and in sight to cancel all obligations and pay for improvements underway.

MARINE FOR MURDER

Arrest in Norfolk Yesterday For Murder of Agrippa Jones.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 12.—W. B. Patterson, a marine on board the training ship Franklin, was arrested tonight by the police on the charge of murdering Agrippa Jones, white, Monday afternoon. Patterson confessed.

Monday night Jones was found dead in the rear of a saloon on Avon street, in the tenderloin district. His skull was fractured. He had been robbed. Proprietor Wells and employes in the bar tried to hide the fact that a crime had been committed. The entire story was developed at the coroner's inquest today and the arrest followed.

Patterson admitted striking the blow and robbing the body. He claims to have gotten only nine dollars. He declares they had a quarrel, that he did not intend to kill Jones and that the robbery was an after-thought.

COAL FOR BATTLESHIPS

Enormous Amount Required For Pacific Bound Fleet.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 12.—Two hundred and fifty three thousand tons of coal exclusive of that to be shipped in government colliers will be required to get the Atlantic battleship fleet to the Pacific coast and properly coal it at Mare Island according to the estimates made by the equipment bureau of the Navy Department which has called for proposals for supplying the necessary fuel. Of this aggregate 133,000 tons are semi-bituminous and the rest Welsh coal. The former is to be shipped from Atlantic ports of the United States in vessels either of American or foreign registery according as the terms may be the more favorable in the opinion of the bureau.

MUNSON LINER STRANDED

Big Steamer on The Shoals Off Florida Coast.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New Orleans, Sept. 12.—A steamer stranded on the Carysfoot reef, off the Florida south coast, was sighted on September 10 by the steamer ElDia, which arrived here today from New York. The El Dia did not stand by to learn anything of the plight of the steamer and was too far away to make out her name or how many persons were on board. The funnels of the stranded steamer indicated that she was a Munson line boat. She grounded far out of the line of regular travel of the Munson line passenger carrying steamers and in waters usually plied by freighters of this line.

TRAIN HELD UP AND ROBBED

Two Masked Men Make Successful Haul in Montana.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 12.—The Great Northern Oriental limited, Train No. 1, which left St. Paul Tuesday morning, was held up by two masked men six or seven miles west of Rexford, Montana, at an early hour this morning. The bandits robbed the mail sacks of a large quantity of registered mail. They blew open a safe which was found to be empty. After firing a parting volley they disappeared. The railway company has offered a reward of $5,000 each for the arrest and conviction of the robbers.

RUNNING NEGROES OUT.

Twenty-Seven White Men Arrested at Fitzgerald, Ga.

Fitzgerald, Ga., Sept. 12.—Twenty-seven white men were arrested last night by Chief of Police Short and a special posse. The men were engaged in an organized effort to drive out negro residents. It was feared another attempt would be made tonight and the sheriff swore in a number of deputies. The local militia was held in readiness and Governor Smith was notified that the militia might be needed.

IMPERIAL YACHT ON ROCKS.

Russian Emperor's Vessel Badly Damaged.

Hangoe, Finland, Sept. 12.—Efforts are being made to save the imperial yacht Standard, which went on the rocks off here yesterday. Emperor Nicholas and the Royal family are housed on board the Alexandria and will remain there until the arrival of the Polar Star from St. Petersburg. They will then return to the capital.

The Standard is still on the reef. Her bottom is badly torn forward and amidships there is a rent 42 feet long. The luxurious saloons, the imperial suite and the engine rooms are flooded. Five salvage steamers are standing by.

Today they succeeded in raising the after funnel of the yacht which had been carried away. The salvage of the Standard is now certain but everything movable on board is being transferred to the Alexandria.

Whole families of Jewish refugees from Kishinev and Odessa, Russia, have fled to the frontier at Ungeni, and the villages along the river Pruth. The Roumanian authorities have issued the strictest orders to prevent their entry into Roumania.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Railroad Securities Looking Up—Metal Stocks Flat.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 12.—The unsettlement and irregularity of the Stock Market continued in evidence today, with the distinction clearly marked between an upward tendency in the railroad stocks and decided depression in the copper stocks with dimnishing sympathetic effect most marked in the other metal stocks, but perceptible also in other industrials. The periods of more aggressive strength in the railroad stocks held up the weak industrials, while the development of acute weakness at other times in the coppers pulled the rest of the list down with them.

The United States Steel stocks showed clearly enough that the condition of the copper trade is arousing anxiety over the iron and steel trade. Immediate advices from that trade were encouraging as to the demand for iron, some recovery having occurred from the extreme price concessions with a revival of demand. The falling off in output in August was moderate, but the decline in weekly output on the first of September was more decided. United States Steel touched the lowlevel of the year by a narrow fraction, while the coppers widely extended their previous low records for the year.

The nature of the liquidation in these stocks gave effect to the rumors which were kept in constant circulation of embarrassments of stock exchange houses.

Short sales by the bears were an important influence, and when they bought to cover the market rallied. The net changes, in consequence, are comparatively small and give no idea of the violence of the drop from the advanced prices of the morning to the depths of the reaction. That one remained feverish and unsettled at the close. Buying for London account and the further easing of London discounts was a feature in the early strength. The local money market continued to relax with the passing of the effect of the bond operations. Copper trade conditions swept all other considerations into the background.

GROSS FAVORITISM CHARGED.

InterState Commerce Commission Asked to Investigate Case.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 12.—Charges of gross favoritism are ade in a complaint filed today with the Interstate Commerce Commission by Carl Eichenberg, of Galveston, against the Southern Pacific Company and the Southern Pacific Terminal Company. The complainant alleges that the defendants have granted the exclusive privileges of their wharves in Galveston to a competitor of the complainant, the privilege affording him a practical monopoly on shipments of cotton seed cake and cotton seed meal by saving all switching and loading and unloading charges. The complainant asserts that he practically has been put out of business, as to the shipment of cotton seed cake and cotton seed meal, being unable to compete with the holder of the monopoly. He asks the Commission to protect him and other shippers in their rights and to give him reparation against the defendant companies in the sum of $40,000.

DISCRIMINATION CHARGED

New Orleans Lumber Interests Apply to Commerce Commission.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 12.—In a petition filed today with the Inter-State Commerce Commission, the New Orleans board of trade, the New Orleans Lumber Exporters' Association and the National Lumber Exporters' Association complain that the Illinois Central Railroad and other railroads entering New Orleans are discriminating against the members of the complaint associations in allowing only ten days of storage on forest products and cotton seed products shipped on local bills of lading, while they allow unlimited storage periods on the same products shipped on through bills of lading from point of origin to foreign destination.

WANT NO MORE ASIATICS

People of VanCouver Will Resist Landing.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 12.—Advices from VanCouver, the scene of the recent race riots, state that the mayor of Vancouver has warned the captain of the steamer Monteagle which has on board 114 Japanese, 149 Chinese and 941 Hindus destined for this port, that he would be unable to guarantee a safe landing here because the unionists have expressed their determination to resist the immigration of any more Asiatic laborers. The steamship authorities feared to assume the risk and the vessel has been turned back to Victoria, where the Asiatic will be landed.

WARM WIRELETS.

Superintendent of Athletics W. H. Robertson, of the Jamestown Exposition, yesterday announced that the amateur Athletic Union National basket ball champion contests will be held at the Exposition September 27-28.

At Chattanooga yesterday the jury in the case of Walter Kilpatrick, formerly of South Pittsburg, Tenn., charged with killing Wiley Maynard, of Macon, Ga., returned a verdict of not guilty. The killing occurred on a sand boat in Chattanooga several months ago.

Randolph Guggenheimer, of the law firm of Guggenheimer, Untermeyer & Marshall, died of appoplexy at his Summer home in West End, Long Branch, N. J., yesterday. Thomas to serve 55 years in solitary confinement in the Western Penitentiary. This is the maximum penalty for the crime, being 15 years for each assault and 10 years for robbery.

Jack Johnson had all the better of his bout of six rounds with "Sailor" Burke at Bridgeport last night. Burke was 23 pounds lighter than the negro fighter upon whom his blows had little effect, while Johnson's terrific swings to the body landed with telling force. In the fifth round Burke was sent to the floor three times.

At Morgantown, W. Va., yesterday, because he had been whipped by his father and ordered to return to work, Andy Sabo, a Hungarian boy, 12 years of age, committed suicide by shooting himself through his heart with a shotgun. The boy's father became violently insane when he heard of the deed and made four unsuccessful attempts to kill himself.

The steamer Town, having on board 1,300 miles of cable for the new direct New York-Havana cable line, sailed from London yesterday. The cable is to be laid for the Commercial Cable Company. The object of laying a cable direct between New York and Havana instead of following the old route between Cuba and Florida, is to reduce the time of transmission.

At Syracuse, N. Y., yesterday Lillian R., a strong favorite, won the Chamber of Commerce stake for 2:09 trotters, worth $3,000, at the grand circuit. Lillian R., won with ease. The race for 2:15 pacers was won by Jack of Diamonds in straight heats. The 2:06 affair for trotters resulted in a Waterloo for the favorite, Lotta (formerly Lady Thistle). Margaret O. won in straight heats.

Weber, of the New York State Department of Labor, spoke on "Labor Legislation, National and International," and W. J. Ghent on "International Socialism; Its Aims, Methods and Progress." These addresses were followed by a general discussion.

Governor and Mrs. Deneen left Springfield, Ill., yesterday morning for Cincinnatti, where they will be joined by President Edmund J. James, of the University of Illinois, and Mrs. James and will leave for Jamestown, Va. Governor Deneen will make the response to the address of welcome by Governor Swanson, of Virginia, on Saturday, which is Illinois Day, and President James also will deliver an address.

The larger portion of yesterday's session of the Jamestown International Dental Congress was devoted to clinics and special clinical lectures and demonstrations. Demonstrations and discussion were by Dr. William H. Taggart, of Chicago; Dr. J. H. Lorenz, of Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. B. E. Custer, of Dayton, Ohio. A water trip through Hampton Roads and the Virginia with entertainment and music by the American National Band was the feature tonight.

New York's First Sidewalk.

The first sidewalk in New York was laid by a woman, Mrs. Samuel Provoost, about 1716. She was an importer and merchant and laid the sidewalk for the convenience of her customers. She had importuned the authorities to do it, but they refused, saying it was impossible. After her object lesson paving and curbing gradually came in, but for some time her sidewalk was so famous that people journeyed even from Philadelphia to see it.

Knew It.

"Well, after the dinner Boresome told a story about his exploits in Africa and then one about an Irishman he met in Switzerland."

"But I thought you were not at the banquet."

"Nor was I at this particular one, but have attended sixteen others where Boresome told these stories."

Bad Habits.

"It would be a very bad thing if farmers ever got control of the national finances."

"Why so?"

"Because from sheer force of habit they would want to be always watering the stock."—Baltimore American.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Charles G. Burton, of Nevada, Missouri, a former member of Congress, today was elected commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic which is holding its forty-first annual encampment here. The new commander-in-Chief was opposed by three candidates General John T. Wilber, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Charles Burrows, of Rutherford, N. J., and Patrick H. Coney, of Topeka, Kas. His plurality was more than three hundred.

Other officers elected by the encampment were as follows:

Lewis C. Griffith, Troy, N. Y., senior vice commander; William M. Scott, Atlanta, Ga., junior vice commander; Dr. T. Lane Tanyhill, Baltimore, Md., surgeon general; Bishop Samuel Fallows, Chicago, chaplain-in-chief.

Toledo, Ohio, was selected as the place of meeting for the next encampment. The date will be fixed by the national council of administration.

—Durham, Sept. 10: Arrangements were made this afternoon for the bringing of a damage suit against Edgar Cheek, assistant teller of the Citizens National Bank on account of the killing of Ethel, the three year old daughter of R. D. Horner, who was killed August 30th by an automobile driven by Cheek. The little girl was crossing the street at the time and the powerful machine crushed out her life. The coroner's jury returned a verdict that the girl was killed while the machine was going at a higher rate of speed than allowed by law, and so criticised the speed in the city that the aldermen now have a committee out to regulate the speed. It is understood that the father of the girl, who this afternoon qualified as administrator of the estate of his daughter, will sue for damages in the sum of $10,000.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

Born in Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 29th, 1872, I. M. Bear, son of the late Marcus and Carrie Bear. Died in Baltimore, Md., Sept. 10th, 1907. Funeral in this city this (Thursday) afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from the Temple of Israel. Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.

—Greensboro, Sept. 11: Friends and acquaintances of Mr. Sample S. Brown and Mrs. Helen G. Brown were much interested in the rumor yesterday that the well known couple had been remarried. It was impossible to gain definite information from members of the family here, in the absence of the parties involved. A search of the office of the register of deeds failed to show that any license had been issued for the marriage of the couple. This made it plain that the marriage must have taken place in Virginia if at all. Danville was the logical point for the event and sure enough the Danville Bee of yesterday afternon contained a full account of it. The following facts are taken from the Bee: "The marriage took place at 9 A. M. yesterday at the Hotel Burton, Rev. Dr. W. R. Laird, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Danville, performing the ceremony, immediately after which Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for the Jamestown Exposition." Friends have thought all along that the couple would be reunited and the news that such is the fact will be gladly heard in many quarters.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Morven, Sept. 11: Our little town of Morven has received from the new crop up to Saturday night, September 7, 186 bales, 113 bales of which were sold on this market September 5, 6 and 7, prices ranging from 13 to 13 3-4. We expect two hundred bales this week.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Sept. 12: The Independent Order of Odd Fellows in North Carolina made a net gain in membership of over one thousand during the last term, the six months ending June 30, according to a statement of Grand Secretary B. H. Woodell made yesterday. He says a greater gain is expected to be shown for the present term.

—Clarkton Express: The Board of Directors of the Bank of Bladen held a meeting in the directors' rom of the Bank on last Wednesday, September 4th. They found the bank in a prosperous condition, and were much gratified with results obtained thus far. It was decided to institute a savings department as soon as they could get in readiness.

—Clarkton Express: Any one who has never traveled through Bladen county has no idea of the vast amount of land lying idle. A large part of it is now bare of timber and likely to be of no service for years to come. Some estimate that there is no more than one acre in a hundred in the county under cultivation. We need several hundred more good farmers in Bladen, and more would come in if they could buy land.

—Reidsville, Sept. 11: The Rev. C. M. Billings has instituted suit in this county against the Charlotte Observer, charging that paper with publishing libellous articles concerning himself, which were sent to that paper several weeks ago by one of its correspondents in South Carolina. The plaintiff is represented by Messrs. Johnston, Johnston & Ivie, and the Observer will be represented by Judge Burwell, of Charlotte, and Messrs. Scott & Reid, of Reidsville.

—Newbern, Sept. 11: The eastern part of North Carolina is doing her part in sending patronage to the Jamestown Exposition. The Newbern and Washington train that left here yesterday morning had on board over 300 men, women and children, enroute to the big show. The eastbound train from Goldsboro transferred 105 passengers to the exposition train, the westbound train from Beaufort gave 50, the P. O. & W. train from Pamlico county transferred 60, and there were 86 exposition tickets sold at the main office. Extra cars had to be attached to the regular train.

—Wilson Times: Mr. W. R. Hinnant, of the Lucama section, is demonstrating every year that intensive cultivation and good farming pays. On a farm of eighteen acres he made over a thousand dollar money crop in addition to his meal and corn. His crop is divided into four acres of tobacco, ten in cotton, and four in corn. He sold today 1,678 pounds of tobacco tips for $193.10 clear check, an average of about 12 cents per pound. He expects this year not less than $150 per acre and will get it at the way he is selling his poorest tobacco, for none of his better grades have yet been marketed.

—The Richmond Times-Dispatch says the condition of Mrs. Joe Farmer of Wilson, N. C., who was viciously attacked by a made-dog, a week ago, was somewhat improved on Wednesday. She is taking the Pastuer treatment at the institute there. Mr. Farmer, her husband, who was bitten on the wrist, was less dangerously hurt. When she was sent to the Pasteur Institute the Wilson people contributed $100 to help dfray her expenses. It requires $200 to pay the entire cost of the treatment. To this sum the Richmond people have contributed $47, the Times-Dispatch giving $10.

—Sampson Democrat, Clinton: A fairly well attended mass meeting was held in the court house here last Friday night to talk of the needs of some manufacturing enterprise and to arouse more interest in a movement to that end. A strong favorable sentiment was manifested and a number of spirited talks were made. A committee was appointed to invite the Hon. Ashley Horne, an experienced and successful cotton mill man of Clayton, Johnston county, to come down soon and make us a speech on the subject. When you hear of the day, come, everybody, to hear Mr. Horne, for he is an interesting speaker, and this is a subject that should concern us all. There will be another meeting for the same purpose at 8 o'clock sharp, on Friday night of this week in the court house, several talks will be made.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisic, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c and $1.00. THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 12.—The cotton market had a very sharp break during today's trading, closing steady at a net decline of 10 to 17 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 450,000 bales. The opening was steady at a net advance of 3 to 4 points with near months relatively firm on covering, some fresh buying attracted by bulls views expressed concerning the effect of yesterday's revision of spot differences in bringing the local contract nearer a parity with middling cotton. At the advance there was heavy releasing and bear pressure owing to continued good weather in the South, disappointing cables, increasing receipts and fears of weakness in the spot markets. Prices quickly weakened under this pressure and continued to work lower until in the early afternon they showed a net loss of 16 to 25 points on the active months, which were about 74 to 88 points below the high level of the season reached only a week ago. At this decline there was covering enough to steady the market and closing prices were about 6 to 11 points up from the lowest. Southern spot markets as officially reported were 1-8c higher to 3-8 lower.

Receipts at the port today 21,204 bales against 9,814 last week and 23,869 last year. For the week 100,000 bales against 44,573 last week and 139,161 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 663 bales against 2,681 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady 15 points lower; middling uplands 12.90; middling gulf 13.15; sales 5,000 bales.

WAS ENAMORED OF NEGRO WOMAN

Charles E. Letton, New Orleans Man Who Stole $107,000 Captured Yesterday.

ABOUT TO COMMIT SUICIDE

Defaulter Was Trying to Summon Up Courage to Jump Into Mississippi River—Confessed to Shortage of $107,000.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New Orleans, Sept. 12.—Charles E. Letten, chief clerk in the office of the first district tax collector here, who disappeared two days ago, leaving a shortage of $100,000, was found this afternoon standing on the bank of the Mississippi attempting to summon up courage enough to jump in the water and commit suicide. He said he had started toward the water several times, but each time his courage had failed him. He made a full confession. The man who saw Letten standing on the river bank reported his discovery to the police and when the officers arrived they found Letten standing under an umbrella reading an account of his defalcation in a morning paper. He said he had found the sun very hot and between his efforts to summon courage enough to commit suicide had sat beneath the umbrella and read of his big theft. Letten said, when carried before the inspector of police and the grand jury, that he had spent the greater part of the money he had taken on a negro woman, who lives in a handsomely furnished house in the old French quarter of the city and who is said to have bought considerable quantities of real estate. Letten says the greater part of the money he had given her had been invested in realty, only a comparatively small amount being devoted to her living expenses.

According to the last estimate made as to Letten's shortage he was about $107,000 short in his accounts when he disappeared two days ago. During these two days he said he had been hiding in the woods along the river.

Virginia Reed, the negress in the case, was arrested today and held as a witness. An attempt will be made to indict her as a principal in the defalcation. Her will, a copy of which was obtained today, showed that she had made provision to give much of the stolen money to a church and to an orphanage. Letten had 83 cents in his possession when arrested.

NEGROES AND ROOSEVELT.

National Baptist Convention Not Opposed to Him.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 12.—"This convention is not opposed to President Roosevelt, because it is not a political convention," declared Rev. E. C. Morris, the president, in calling the National Baptist (Negro) Convention together at the second day's session. Dr. Morris said there were many negroes in the convention who are for the President, although they are convinced he made a mistake in the Brownsville affair. The speaker said further that these negroes believe the President is "manly enough to correct his error when the time comes."

Rev. L. G. Jordan, secretary of the foreign mission board, in making his annual report, said that God had no other purpose in permitting the negroes to be brought to this country as slaves than to prepare them to send the gospel to their brothers and sisters in darkest Africa.

HUGE STEAMER FAIRLY FLYING

Lusitania Within 360 Miles New York at 6 O'clock Last Fvening.

SPEED 23.68 KNOTS HOUR

Best Day's Run Across Ocean Has Been 593 Nautical Miles, a New World's Record—Steamer Lucania 250 Miles Astern.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Halifax, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The Marconi Wireless Company, at Cape Sable, was in touch with the Cunard liner Lusitania at 6 o'clock this evening, Atlantic standard time. The Lusitania's position was reckoned at that hour to be 360 miles from New York. The Lucania, also of the Cunard line, was apparently in communication with the big turbiner, as the latter reported the Lucania 250 miles astern. The average speed of the Lusitania throughout the voyage was announced at 23.86 knots per hours. The highest day's run was 593 miles, which, it was claimed on board the Lusitania, established a new world's record for one way. Whether the word miles is used in this semi-official statement is a nautical sense, is not entirely clear, but presumably this must be the case, in order to reconcile the report with that sent out at Sable Island this morning that the Lusitania was averaging 670 miles per day. In the latter instance land miles were unmistakably implied and this figure is equivalent to approximately 580 knots or nautical miles. The message to The Associated Press from Cape Sable is as follows:

"6 P. M. Local: Lusitania about 360 miles from New York; expects to dock at noon tomorrow; highest day's record run, 593 miles, world's record for day's run broken; average speed 23.86 knots. Lucania, 6 P. M., reported 250 miles astern."

The most important ocean race in trans-Atlantic steaming is nearing a spectacular finish. The turbine driven Lusitania, in which is incarnated the British resolve to win back from Germany the blue ribbon of the seas, was nearly abeam Nantucket lightship tonight, and only about 200 miles from Sandy Hook bar. She has easily broken the Cunard Line record of the Lucania, which tonight was travelling 250 miles astern, but to wrest from the Deutschland of the Hamburg-American Line the glory of the fatest westward passage the challenger must reach the bar not later than 8:40 o'clock tomorrow morning. Indications tonight were that she would reach the finish line about 9 o'clock.

WAS DECEIVED BY SPIRITUALIST

Jury Finds Verdict of Lunacy Against Aged Edward W. Vanderbilt.

INVEIGLED INTO MARRIAGE

Spiritualist Medium Got Millionaire to Marry Her Through Pretended Spirit Called Bright Eyes. Absorbing His Wealth.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 12.—Edward W. Vanderbilt, the aged retired merchant of Brooklyn who married May S. Pepper, the spiritualist medium, is incapable of managing his affairs because of lunacy, according to a verdict returned by a sheriff's jury in Brooklyn today. The proceedings to have Mr. Vanderbilt declared incompetent were brought by his daughter, Miss Minerva Vanderbilt, after Mr. Vanderbilt had married Mrs. Pepper several months ago and had given to her a large portion of the real estate which he owned in Brooklyn, including the house in which they lived. Miss Vanderbilt asserted that her inheritance rights were being disregarded by these gifts and that she had been left without a home. A brother and sister of Mr. Vanderbilt subsequently joined her in the appeal to the courts. Munch evidence was offered to show that Mr. Vanderbilt had received communications which he supposed came from the spirit of his former wife, now dead, through another spirit called "Bright Eyes," from which latter spirit Mrs. Vanderbilt declared that she acted as a medium of communication with mortals.

COMPANY STANDING PAT.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

General Superintendent Brooks, of the Western Union, said concerning the report:

"This company is standing now just where it has stood from the beginning of the strike. There will be no compromise on our part. We have received no committee and will receive none. Our business is conducted with the same dispatch as before the strike."

GREW MISS CARROLL'S HAIR

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

—Asheville, Sept. 9: George Greenlee, a negro detective of Asheville, Saturday night succeeded in recovering for W. M. Magill, a prominent citizen of St. Louis and a visitor with his wamily to Asheville last months, a valuable ring belonging to Mr. Magill's daughter, and highly valued by reason of its being her graduating present. The ring was stolen one day about two weeks ago, while the St. Louis visitors were guests of a local hotel. Greenlee was given the case and securing a minute description of the ring, went to work. Saturday night about 12 o'clock Greenlee walked up to Jasper Sims, a local negro, while Jasper was talking to other negroes and promptly removed the stolen ring from Jasper's necktie. The negro was wearing the ring, valued at more than $325, as a scarf pin. It developed positively, however, that Jasper had nothing to do with the larceny of the ring. A woman infatuated with Jasper had secured the ring and given it to Jasper. The woman has vamoosed.
